

Unfortunately, not all roads are paved.

Fortunately, there's Bilstein.

Some times your final destination may take you well off the beaten path. That's when you really need the added handling and control that Bilstein monotube gas pressure shocks provide. No other RV shock manufacturer has the off-road heritage and expertise as Bilstein, having been on the winning vehicles at races like the world famous Baja 1000 for decades. So when it comes time to take your SURV on or off the road to adventure, make sure you do it on Bilstein shocks.

The huge self-adjusting digressive working piston inside a Bilstein shock instantly reacts to changing suspension input and adjusts for any condition...smooth road, rough road or no road. Provides maximum vehicle body motion control while maintaining superior comfort.
